KEMALISTS LESS SURE OF SUCCESS

Find Great Powers of Europe Less Subservient Than Greece

FIRST PEACE MAKING SESSION TODAY

Secret Sessions of Lausanne Conference Open — Turks May Not Get Protection of Rivalry Between France, England and Italy—Americans Active.

LAUSANNE, Nov. 21 (Associated Press).—Delegates to the Lausanne conference, with the preliminary oratory concerning the close relations of Great Britain, France and Italy behind them, faced this morning the real test of the strength of the ties which spokesmen for the three powers have insisted existed among them.

The conference meets in private session today for purposes of organization and to start the actual work of making peace with the Turks. For centuries Turkey has been able to protect herself by getting European nations to quarrel among themselves over Near Eastern questions. The rivalry of France, Italy and Great Britain for supremacy in the Levant has been the protection of weak sultans in the past and it remains to be seen whether it will also be of service to Mustafa Kemal Pasha and his Angora associates.

Ismet Pasha and his associates of the Turkish delegation to the conference appear less confident than when they arrived, and the feeling is growing that they will reduce their program materially in the hope of restoring peace and re-establishing trade relations with the outside world. It is becoming evident that they are beginning to realize that it was Greece and not the great powers of Europe which they defeated in their recent successful campaign about Smyrna.

Richard Washburn Child, American ambassador to Italy, and Joseph C. Grew, American minister to Switzerland, who are acting as observers at the Near East conference, conferred with Premier Poincaré of France at the Palace Hotel at 10 o'clock today.

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen is here to persuade conference delegates to include in the prospective treaty with Turkey guarantees for the protection of Greeks and Armenians in Turkish territory, framed in such definite terms that the refugee situation in the Near East will not be further aggravated.

Miller, violinist; and Miss Eleanor P. Sands, contralto. The program was as follows: Rheinberger, Pastoral Sonata in G; Haydn, Minuet in D; Pleyel, Adagio in B Flat; Buxtehude, Fugue in C Major; Shellee, solo; To Him That Overcometh; Saint Saens, Piano Concerto in G Minor; Mendelssohn, March of the Priests.

Mrs. Charles Ogilvie and two sons, Charles and Robert, of Pekin, China, are now established at the Whittle house.

Principal Alfred E. Stearns of Phillips-Andover academy speaks at Mount Hermon Sunday morning and at the vespers at Sage chapel.

Miss Flavia Curtis of Boston was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lazelle. She formerly lived with them and attended the seminary.

Miss Isabel Thompson is with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Merrifield until Thanksgiving, when she will go to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Thompson, at Coconut Grove, Fla.

Principal and Mrs. C. E. Dickerson receive cheering reports from their son, Charles E. Jr., now serving under the United States commerce commission in Athens. The troublous times in Greece have not affected the work of the department seriously. He is located adjacent to a British classical school and has a congenial environment.

The Women's Relief corps held its regular meeting Friday afternoon at Alexander hall. The memorial service of the order was observed for Mrs. Laura Kendall Bailey, who died in Vernon last week. Mrs. J. A. Stebbins, the president, and Mrs. M. Deole gave testimony to Mrs. Bailey's faithfulness and devotion as a member of the corps. Mrs. E. M. Lazelle a personal friend of Mrs. Bailey, gave a tribute to her worth as a true friend and an exemplary Christian. The order will elect officers at the next meeting, Dec. 17.

The annual meeting of Mrs. A. G. Moody's Sunday school class was held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bittenger Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. A. Holton presiding. Members who are ill or away were considered; the money gifts for the needs of the Vernon Polish family were collected and amounted to $322 with more promised. The following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. F. A. Holton; vice pres., Mrs. Fred Merrifield; sec. and treas., Mrs. W. H. Waite; rec. sec., Mrs. L. H. Lazelle; chairman of committees, membership, Mrs. F. E. Evans; calling, Mrs. Leavis; missionary, Mrs. Todd. The social committee will be chosen for each monthly social. Mrs. Bittenger and the entrance committee served tea and cake. About 40 were present.

Hon. John Haigis of Greenfield was not present at the Red Cross rally in the town hall Saturday evening, but he sent an excellent substitute in Attorney Homer Sherman of Charlestown. He gave a talk, teeming with helpful hints on the recent Red Cross drive in his town. Miss Holmes, Red Cross nurse, of Rowe, informed on the duties of a Red Cross or a community nurse, that they were to instruct in health preservation chiefly. She gave interesting personal experiences. Other speakers were Mrs. Isabel Chamberlain, county superintendent, and A. P. Fitt on Red Cross work here. Four excellent reels of Red Cross movies and patriotic selections by Mount Hermon orchestra enlivened the program. F. W. Kellogg and his team of about 20 solicitors are canvassing the town for Red Cross memberships and gifts for the Near East Relief. The drive closes Thanksgiving day.

LABORITES TO SMASH OLD CEREMONIES

Promise Lively Sessions In New Parliament—Real Dour Scottish Fighters.

LONDON, Nov. 21 (Associated Press).—Parliamentary writers have already decided that the new house of commons will be livelier than its predecessors and that the opposition, which will apparently be furnished by the Laborites, will be keener and more aggressive.

Discussing incidents and scenes attendant upon the opening of the session yesterday, the correspondents call attention to the challenging spirit which the Radical Laborites from the Clyde district seem to have brought with them. The exclamation, "We will smash all this," shown in broad Scottish accent by one of the Labor members at the conclusion of the time-honored ceremonies, is considered significant.

These Laborites are described by some writers as "grim, stern, set men," to whom the Scottish word dour seems specially applicable, and they are credited with the intention of injecting a bit of ginger into their party.
